PRISONER IS UNCONCERNED

Buffalo, Sept. 23.—Following the twelve jurors who will decide the fate of Czolgosz, Frederick A. Lauer, plumber, Richard J. Harwood, street railway foreman,
Henry W. Wendt, manufacturer, Silas Garner, farmer,
James S. Staszak, Jr., plumber, William Loton, farmer,
Walter L. Everett, blacksmith, Ben C. Ralph, bank cashier, Samuel P. Waldo,
Andrew J. Smith,
Joachim H. Mertens, shoe dealer, Robert J. Adams, contractor.

Buffalo, Sept. 23.—Czolgosz was placed on trial this morning, charged with the murder of President McKinley. He entered a plea of "guilty," which was subsequently changed to "not guilty" by direction of the court. All the events of the day indicated the trial will be short.
The court convened at 10 o'clock and a two hours eight jurors had been selected. Justice White, one of the oldest most experienced supreme court justices, was on the bench. Immediately the opening of court, after the pris-oned, Justice Lewis, senior counsel, the defendant announced he was not in behalf of the prisoner.
The work of securing jurors was announced with amazing celerity. Before the jury was over the entire panel was called, and the jurors had listened to the petition of the interior of the structure had been told by three surgeons caused the death and the effect of bullet's shot upon the various organs of the body. It also learned why bullet had not been located.
The presentation of the government's case shortly before 3 o'clock.
Attorney Haller, with much demonstrated the jury.

THE TESTIMONY.

The first witness was Samuel J. Fields, who explained the position of the aisle in which the bullet had not been located.
The presentation of the government's
case shortly before 3 o'clock.
Attorney Haller, with much demonstrated the jury.

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—The Enquirer says: A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania company, has demanded that George Gould surrender the Wabash system and Wheeling & Lake Erie at a price which will net a profit to the Goulds under a threat of cutting off the whole Western Pennsylvania system as well as from the Vanderbilt lines which have agreed to the deal.

sheriffs and policemen. He was seated between guards directly in front of the bar. District Attorney Penny read the charge against Czolgosz and asked the prisoner how he pleaded. "Guilty," responded Czolgosz in a low tone. Judge Lewis, addressing the court, stated that, according to law, this plea could not be accepted, and on behalf of the prisoner, asked that the plea of not guilty be entered. The trial then proceeded.

INDIFFERENT.

During the examination of jurors, the prisoner sat erect in his chair and gazed ahead at the back of his senior counsel.
Beyond blinking his eyes, he appeared unconcerned. He made no effort to communicate with counsel, nor they with him.

John G. Milburn, the host of President McKinley, and at whose home the death of the president occurred, came into the court room at 11:30.

FOUR WOMEN IN COURT.

There were only four women in the court room, three inside the railing as guests of the court, and one in the spectators' seats.

After the acceptance of the seventh juror, Judge Lewis addressed the court, saying that mankind as both he and his principal associate were aged men, and owing to the suddenness of their connection with the case and the fact that they had little time for preparation, he desired the sessions of the court to be as short as possible. He believed the progress of the case would in no way be hindered or delayed by short hours. He suggested that court convene at 10 a. m. and close at 4 p. m., and that there will be an intermission from 12 noon until 2 p. m.

Justice White expressed himself as believing accessible to this arrangement, believing the request to be a reasonable one. He therefore made the hours of the court to conform with Mr. Lewis' request.

At the adjournment of court the spectators were required to keep their seats until the judge, jury and counsel had passed out.

Palmer and Peabody Donate $50,000 to Victims of Mine Explosion.

Salt Lake, Utah, Sept. 23.—Personal donations aggregating $50,000, it has been announced here, have been made by William J. Palmer and George Foster Peabody, until recently large shareholders in the Pleasant Valley Coal Co. of Utah. In May, 1900, an explosion at the Scofield mine killed nearly two hundred people. A public fund of over $100,000 was subscribed, and subsequently the company gave the heirs of each victim $500, or a total of $100,000.
It is now announced that Messrs. Palmer and Peabody, having severed all connection with the company personally, donate $50 to the heirs of each person killed and to such persons seriously injured a total amounting to $50,000. They also donate $10,000 each to St. Marks, Episcopal and Holy Cross, Catholic, hospitals of Salt Lake. In addition $20,000 is given for the establishment of four hospitals at the four principal camps of the company.

BULLETS NOT POISONED.

Chemists' Analysis of the Czolgosz Mi-siles.

Buffalo, Sept. 23.—The two bullets shot into the body of President McKinley were not poisoned.

This statement was made to District Attorney Penny by Dr. Herbert M.
Hills, the city chemist, who completed his examination Sunday afternoon and submitted his report last night.

An additional report will be made by Dr. Mueselinger, who assisted at the autopsy on the body of the president.

Dr. Mueselinger's report will deal with the examinations of tissues which were penetrated by the last bullet. The report will confirm the conclusions of Dr. Hills.
The latter, in his report, which is very elaborate, says that the bacteriological and chemical examinations did not disclose any trace of poison on the revolver used by the assassin or in the bullet which entered the body of the president and was recovered.

TALKS OF TARIFF AND TRUSTS

Opposed to Latter When They Seek to Control Products and Prices

Centerville, Ia., Sept. 23.—Hon. A.
B. Cummins, republican candidate for governor formally opened the campaign this afternoon, addressing a large audience in this city. He devoted two hours to discussing state and national issues. He said in part: "The central thought of all tariff legislation enacted by the republican congress has been to preserve the American manufacturer, farmer and artisan from destructive importation; that is to say, to enable the American producers to open up and develop the bountiful resources of their own country to pay his employes good wages and sell the product at a fair profit in our own markets. My faith in the principle and my enthusiasm in its results have rather increased than diminished. When, however, combination attempts or attains practical monopoly in the field embraced and uses or intends to use unlawful and destructive power thus acquired to arbitrarily fix the price of its products, it becomes the enemy of good government and im-perils the peace and good order of society and inflicts upon the people an injustice against which they ought and will rebel. It does not seem to me either wise or logical in order to meet this evil to put indiscriminately every article which may be produced by such combinations upon the free list, for by so doing we would annihilate many honest business, impoverish thousands of honest manufacturers, cast in idleness an army of our best workmen." With regard to railway taxation, Cummins declared he believed the present laws of the state needed reformation.

BROOKLYN'S PART

In the Battle of Santiago Described by Commander Hellner.

THE MANOEUVRE OF SCHLEY

For a Time the Greatest Danger the Texas Had to Contend With.

Washington, Sept. 23.—The part played by the Texas at Santiago on July 3rd, 1898, was the basis of the greater part of today's proceedings before the court of inquiry. Of the four witnesses examined three were officers of the Texas during the battle, two of them now witnesses. There were Commander Hellner, navigator, Commander Bates, chief engineer, and Commander Harber, recalled. The fourth witness was Commander Schroeder, executive officer of the Massachusetts. The testimony covered times during the day was somewhat exciting, especially when Hellner described the battle and the part the Texas had taken. He said when the Brooklyn made the loop it passed across the Texas' bow at a distance not to exceed 100 or 150 yards and the Texas was brought to a dead stop. Bates testified that the starboard engines stopped and he said he thought this also happened to the port engines. Hellner expressed the opinion that three miles was lost by the maneuver and part of the machine was damaged. He considered the Texas was in greater danger when the Brooklyn crossed than at any other time.
On cross examination Hellner admitted having taken part in the preparation of the official navy department chart showing the position of the ships which participated in the battle. He said according to the chart the two ships never were nearer than six hundred yards of each other. But, he contended, the chart was inaccurate and he had only consented to it as a compromise. Bates admitted the official steam log of the Texas contained no record of a signal to reverse the engines. Schroeder testified concerning the coal supply of the Massachusetts, which he said would have been sufficient for a blockade of from sixteen to twenty days. The day closed with another animated controversy between counsel as to the policy of resolving Sampson's name into the trial.
WILL NOT BRING SAMPSON.
The Schley court of inquiry assembled promptly at eleven with a larger attendance than heretofore, but with fewer distinguished personages present. It was authoritatively stated today that the navy department has no intention at present of bringing Admiral Sampson to Washington to participate in the inquiry. The understanding has been reached between the counsel that each party of the loss of the fleet participating in the fight is Cuban waters as either side desired could be printed.
Commander Schroeder was recalled and asked if he desired to make any corrections in the official record of his testimony Saturday. "There's one omission from Schley's remarks on the Massachusetts on the day of the bombardment of the Colon which I overheard and which I would like to supply," he replied. "It is this: He said when he came aboard that Admiral Sampson would be there on the following day. He made the statement in connection with the remark that he was going in to sink the Colon."

HELLNER'S TESTIMONY.

Lieutenant Commander Hellner, nav-igator of the Texas during the war, was next called. He said he heard no gun fired when the squadron approached Cienfuegos. To his knowledge no effort was made to ascertain whether the Spanish fleet was in the harbor at that point, or whether Spanish works there.
Nor had there been any effort to communicate with the Cubans on shore, until McCalla arrived on the Marblehead. Hellner said while the Texas was not in the engagement with the Colon, May 31, he had seen some shots from the enemy which had fallen short.
The witness described the battle of July 3 and in reply to a question by Lemly he said that during the battle he considered the Texas in the greatest danger when the Brooklyn, in making the famous "loop" having passed the Texas, loomed up in the smoke ahead of the Texas one hundred to a hundred and fifty yards away, headed for land. He said he heard no signal from the Brooklyn indicating her change of course.
Hellner also said the chart made the Brooklyn go a half mile out to sea in making its loop; that on that point the chart was not accurate. Referring to Schley's blockade of Santiago harbor witness said that during the day the distance was five or six miles out, but that in steaming across the mouth of the harbor at night the distance was gradually increased. On the day when the enemy's ships were discovered the fleet had been closer in. He had, he said, on that day seen three cruisers inside of the harbor.

Troops to Quell Strikers

Madisonville, Ky., Sept. 23.—The gov-to hold in check the turbulent coal mine strikers. As the result of an armed attack by a squad of strikers today Judge J. Nunn has wired Governor Beckham as follows:

"It is my opinion that troops are needed here at once to preserve the peace." Early today the strikers opened fire on Reinecke mines from a grove 500 yards off and gradually drew nearer.
One squad of 25 or 30 strikers stood within 50 yards of the main road and peppered the street. The guard who was patrolling in front of a row of miners' houses beat a hasty retreat. The resistance this morning by the strikers was the most determined yet offered.

the statement of Shaffer, giving the history of the late strike and the terms of the settlement. After detailing the causes of the strike, its progress and efforts to effect a settlement, Shaffer gives a copy of the settlement, substantially as follows: "The American Tin Plate company reserves the right to discharge any employee who shall prevent another from peacefully following his vocation without reference to his connection with labor organizations. Non-union mills will be represented as such. No attempts be retained by the men if they desire.

Individual agreements will be made for mills of an improved character, until they are developed, when the scales shall govern. The company shall not hold prejudice against employees by reason of membership in the Amalgamated. The agreement to remain in force for three sheet steel scale as printed is as signed for mills of last year except at Hyde Park and Canal Dover. The steel hoop scale as printed was signed for mills saying he is willing to resign if the members think him inefficient and indisposed.

CHIEF RESIGNS

B. C. Applegate Tendered His Resignation to Mayor Shilling on Friday.

IS EFFECTIVE MONDAY NIGHT

Becomes Superintendent of Furling Detective Agency at St. Louis—Successor Will Be Named Monday Night.

At the meeting of the city council on Monday night the resignation of B. C. Applegate as chief of police of the city of Decatur will be presented to the aldermen by Mayor Shilling, who now has it in his hands. It will be accepted, because the chief intends that it shall be no other way. The resignation is to take effect at once. This action on the part of the chief is purely voluntary and he does it because he believes he is accepting a position that is more to his liking. He will become superintendent of the Furling Detective Agency at St. Louis.

For some time there have been rumors that Chief Applegate intended to resign, but when asked for information on that score he always put off the question with a remark, "When I resign you'll know all about it." This answer was after that style a week ago when he was asked to confirm or deny a rumor. Last night when a reporter again heard the story and this time had some reason for believing it to be true, he again asked the chief for a confirmation or denial of the rumor. The chief then said that his resignation would go before the city council on Monday night next and that he had no intention of Mayor Shilling.

Concerning his reason for resigning he said: "I am going to St. Louis to take the position of superintendent of the Furling Detective Agency. I worked for Thomas Furling several years and since I left his service have on several occasions had offers from him. Recently Dr. R. Harbush resigned his position as superintendent and the position was offered to me. At last I have concluded to accept it. I have refused other offers of like service because I find Decatur a pleasant place to live and have some warm friends here. But for a man in this business there is no show here for advancement. If you are chief of police that settles it. Then too, the position depends on me."

POLITICAL PREFERENCE.
You last but a year at a time or two years at the most. A new mayor comes in and you are out. I know that my place with Furling will not be of that kind. I have worked for him and know that I can satisfy him. As long as I do that I am all right. Then there is opportunity for advancement. With all that in St. Louis.

than the one paid in this city for the chief of police. Now that I am going away and will be no further concerned it may not be out of place for me to say that the salary here is not sufficient for the amount of work a man has to do. In a position as chief in this city, or any city, you are constantly open to a little criticism from all quarters. You are cursed if you do and cursed if you don't. In the position I have accepted I will not have anything of that kind to contend with."

When the chief was asked if he had any idea as to who his successor might be, he shook his head and said, "You must ask Mayor Shilling that question. I am resigning, not naming a chief of police."

HIS DECATUR WORK.
B. C. Applegate has been known to the people of Decatur since 1894, when he came in charge of the Furling men, still here on the occasion of the Washburn strike, and he has practically been in Decatur ever since. He went to work for the Furling agency at St. Louis in 1902. Furling then did the secret work for the Washburn company and after the strike Applegate was given charge of the middle division as secret service man. When the Washburn movement changed and gave the secret service business into the hands of C. O. Barnes the latter retained Applegate on the middle division. In 1908 Applegate resigned his position in the secret service and entered the Washburn dining car service as conductor, remaining there until the spring of 1909 when Mayor Sander appointed him chief of police and that position he has since filled, being reappointed last May by Mayor Shilling.

IMPROVED THE DEPARTMENT.
In some respects the police department of Decatur has been greatly improved under the management of Chief Applegate. He has systematized the work, especially in the office records, and the affairs there are in such shape that any one can get information of any work done by the department. There is a record of every arrest made since Applegate was appointed chief, and the records show two vast dispositions was made of the cases. There is a complete record of all letters and circulars received in relation to the department work and there is likewise a record of all such letters sent out from this office. It is not expected that B. C. Applegate has pleased all persons by his administration. No doubt he never tried to do that. But it is true that he has been a capable officer. The fact that he is given a responsible position by a man who is at the head of a big agency and one who knows a capable officer that has served under him, is an argument that some of his critics may find hard to answer.

MAYOR SHILLING.
Was asked last night if he had determined upon the man he would appoint chief of police to succeed Applegate and declared that he had not. He said: "It's too sudden. I did not know positively, until today, that Applegate would resign. I haven't had time to consider the matter of selecting a chief for the police department."

When asked if he would name the successor of Applegate at the meeting when the latter's resignation was read, he answered, "The chances are that I will." Beyond that the mayor would not discuss the resignation.

SPECULATING OF COURSE.
Among those who had knowledge of the resignation of Chief Applegate there was some speculation last night as to who his successor might be. The guess was quite natural, no doubt, that Daniel Sullivan, now serving as night captain, would be the man. It is natural to make that guess because Captain Sullivan is next in command, has an intimate knowledge of the workings of the department and has for his recommendation, ability.

There will be no doubt some candidates for the place from among men who are not now on the force. There are not a few men who have the idea that they could give excellent satisfaction to themselves at least, in that position.

OAKLEY SCHOOL.

Held Memorial Services On Tuesday—Address By Miss Wheeler.

The Oakley school held services at the school building Tuesday afternoon in honor of President McKinley. The flag was at half mast. President McKinley's picture was draped in mourning. The school choir sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The school reading of the same chapter as that read at the president's funeral at Buffalo, then an address by the teacher, Miss Lulu Wheeler. She spoke in part as follows: "We the people of the United States, in submission to the will of Providence, are bowed down in grief, mourning the loss of our beloved President, William McKinley."

"Our hearts are saddened with the thought that the nation is under the wise administration of our departed president, could be so soon, low and degraded as to take his life, and yet in our sorrow, we are not alone and it is a great comfort to know the whole world joins in our sorrow and sympathy."

"It is the third time in our American history that our rulers—Lincoln, Garfield, and last, President McKinley. Each was a favorite with the people and there have been few leaders that have been better loved than they."

"President McKinley served his people faithfully for four years and six months and we attribute our great success in this Spanish-American war to his firm and wise judgment. It has been indeed an era of prosperity."

"Our country has made a wonderful advancement under his management, and a visit to the Pan-American exposition will confirm the fact. The United States stands foremost among nations."

"As to his home life, President McKinley was truly the first husband in America, as shown by his devotion to his loved wife, and by his love of home life. The president was a Christian, first in his home, his life there was pure and clean; second, in his public life, his unwavering faith in God shone in the performance of his duty."

"In hours of suffering and on the deathbed, he has given us an example of a strong faith."

"The effects of his assassination are worrisome and who can tell where it will stop and when."

"It is a disgrace to the nation and a shame that the nation and world of America. It has attracted the attention of all civilized nations. It is certainly a lesson to us. It should teach us to love and honor our ruler and the laws of our lands and that to be absolute means tyranny and anarchy."

"May this sad event cause us to think, not only as to how to live, but how to know and another president may be taken and may President Roosevelt be a worthy successor of President McKinley."

The school then sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and remarks were made by several who were present.

ELECTRIC CITY.

Elaborate Illumination Proposed For Week of Carnival.

The illuminations at the carnival this year are to be one of the leading features and if the proposed plans are carried out the business portion of the town will be rendered as brilliant as day with myriads of colored lights artistically arranged in festoons, wreaths and majestic arches.

Two years ago at the last carnival the electric feature was made very prominent and there were some very brilliant effects in various parts of the city, but this was all the result of individual effort. This year it is the intention to do the work systematically and on a pre-arranged plan by which the cost will be greatly lessened while the effect will be wonderfully increased; in fact, under the plan proposed the electric illumination of the entire carnival section will not cost so much as is usually expended for flags and bunting. A man who makes a business of electric illuminating for street fairs, etc., is in the city in consultation with the illumination committee of the Elks and others, and as he furnishes all the lights and wiring, this most expensive item of the cost is obliterated and the only cost to the business man is a stipulated price per light.

A general canvass of the business section is to be made by the committee of Elks having the matter in charge and it is to be hoped that they will meet with liberal encouragement. Any one desiring further information is referred to A. Kaufman, of Ottumacher & C.

TRAVELING MEN.
The Elks have sent invitations to all the neighboring lodges of that order to visit Decatur during the fall week month, and participate in the great carnival which is going to attract all the people of central Illinois. In addition they have sent invitations to all the traveling men of the neighboring cities. Plans for the big show are now assuming definite shape and the management feels warranted in expressing the opinion that it will be the best of the kind ever given in central Illinois.

STREETS OF DECATUR.
P. O. Jones and wife are in the city. They have been touring the southern portion of the state with a theatrical company and are here to remain until after the carnival. Mr. Jones will take charge of the Streets of Decatur and is now engaged in getting his line of attractions together. He says that he will be prepared to furnish the people with a good entertainment and that the program will be made up of local talent, of which there is more than enough.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhea.
"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor of New Albany, Bradford county, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhea, and was about to give up the trip, when Doctor Ward of the Lawrenceville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by all druggists.

MOWEAQUA WON

Defeated Mt. Pulaski by Score of Six to Five in Exciting Game.

The winning run was made by Moweaqua men stealing home while Catcher Stahl was Disputing With the Umpire.

Moweaqua has one of the finest amateur ball teams in the country and Friday defeated their rivals, Mt. Pulaski, by a score of six to five. It was an exciting game. The Mt. Pulaski crowd went down on a special train during the forenoon. They were accompanied by several hundred of their admirers and a band. They expected to clean out the Moweaqua team but failed. The crowd witnessing the game was the largest that ever assembled on a similar occasion, the gate receipts being about one hundred dollars. Remmers and Lundgren pitched for the visitors while Stahl did the catching. For Moweaqua Scarlett and Snyder were in the points. The home nine won the game in the last half of the ninth inning. With the score five to four against them one of the locals hit the ball to center field and a man on second scored. It was a close decision but the umpire called the runner safe. Catcher Stahl proceeded to argue with the "umps" and lost track of the game. While the rag chewing match was at its height the man who hit the ball to center and sent in the tying run stole home from second with the winning run. There was a disputed lot of Mr. Pulaski fans about that time, and none more so than Catcher Stahl, who was standing at the plate with the ball.

The game was not for any prize but after it was over the Mt. Pulaski crowd dared Moweaqua to come to Decatur to play for one hundred dollars a side, but the Moweaqua boys would not listen to the offer for the reason that Mt. Pulaski is accused of not having acted according to an agreement made when the arrangements for the game of Friday were entered into. This arrangement was made about Moweaqua had defeated the team a few weeks ago. It was to the effect that the same two teams were to meet again. Now Moweaqua claims that Mt. Pulaski went down with two University of Illinois men. One of these was Matthews who covered second.

The other was Landrum, who has had offers to enter the professional arena as a pitcher. He played at Short, but afterwards went into the box. Rather than disappoint the crowd the Moweaqua team went into the field and with the odds against them won by better playing. The hits and errors were even, being five hits and two errors each. The Moweaqua manager says that he would not accept the invitation to play in Decatur today for the reason that the visiting team had broken faith with him once and he did not care to enter into any other agreement with them.

The Moweaqua nine is an unbeaten organization and unquestionably the strongest amateur nine in this part of the state. They have played twelve games this season and have never met defeat. Some of the games have been against strong amateur teams.

WAS IN BUFFALO.
Comrade Martin Witnessed Many Historic Scenes Following President's Death.

Comrade W. F. Martin has returned home after attending the Grand Army encampment and visiting the exposition at Buffalo. He was in Buffalo the day of the death of President McKinley and remained until the exercises in that city had been completed. On Sunday he visited the city hall and looked upon the remains of the lamented president. Mr. Martin had seen him several times in life and he says that the face of the dead was emaciated, but for all that, quite natural. While many were compelled to stand in line for hours, he was fortunate in getting a place and having to stand but fifteen minutes. He says that there was merely time for a brief glance at the face of the president, but that he managed to stop a little longer than the rest. On the day following, he says, he had charge of the Grand Army guard of honor escorting the remains from the city hall to the railroad station.

Round Oak Furnaces have large feed doors, burn wood or coal; but whatever they burn, give greater heat than any other furnaces, because all the gases and nearly all the smoke is consumed. I was not told about the crime and I never anything about that until a before I committed the shot sat down. He was in the yard as a warden. In all those years he escaped any injury, although he was engaged in what is the most hazardous work on a railroad, coupling and uncoupling cars. In those days automobile couplers had not come into general use and the work was far more dangerous than at the present time. It seems strange that he would go through years of that sort of work without any injury and finally lose his arm as the result of a pin scratch.

THE DELINQUENT VILLAGES.

Secretary of State Corrects an Error Concerning Their Status.The attention of the secretary of state has been called to the following newspaper clipping:"Someone has discovered that there are eighty-two towns and villages in Illinois not legally incorporated. Among them are Bureau, Sheridan, Toulon, Vanmua and Long Point and Hurdville. All business done by these places has been decided illegal by Secretary of State Rose. All ordinances which have for their object village government will have to be repealed."The secretary says that the item is wholly unwarranted by any statement sent out from his office and that, as secretary of state, he has never undertaken at any time to publish, or even express an opinion as to the validity of the organization of any town or village or to question the legality of the acts or ordinances of any municipality of the state. He says, however, that on Aug. 25, there were eighty-two villages in the state claiming organization under the general law of 1872, all of which have failed to comply with that section of the act of 1872 (Section 13, article 1), requiring a record of organization proceedings to be filed in his office; but whenever the validity of the organization or legality of the acts of one of these or other municipalities is called in question the matter is one to be determined by the courts and not by the secretary of state.The act of 1872 makes it the duty of the secretary to keep in his office a correct list of all incorporated cities, towns and villages of the state. If villages, assuming to organize under this act, ignore that part of the law requiring them to file a record of their organization, it is manifestly impossible for him to keep such a list as the law requires."This office," he says, "is engaged in an earnest effort to secure a compliance with the spirit and the letter of the law. Since correspondence has begun with the village authorities, Aug.
25, 25 per cent of these eighty-two delinquent villages have taken advantage of the privileges offered by the act of 1901 to complete the record of their organization. The act of 1901 becomes void after Nov. 10, I hope in the meantime to receive and file records of the organization of a large proportion of the remaining 75 per cent and to issue certificates of incorporation to these delinquent municipalities.""I am grateful beyond measure to the press of the state for the assistance rendered in this matter, but I do not care to be credited with usurping the functions of the judiciary in passing upon the legality of municipal acts and ordinances."

GYPSIES ON TRIAL

Have Several Charges to Answer in Justice House's Court.The cases of William Beatty, George Hahn, Louise Hahn and Rose Minton, the gypsies arrested on various charges on Monday, came up for trial before Justice Smith yesterday and were taken to Justice Hahn on a charge of venue. All the parties are charged with stealing corn from the field of Claude Shively near Elwin and the rest of the gang have charges of disorderly conduct, carrying concealed weapons, etc., standing against them and they will be tried later. By agreement the corn stealing case was taken up first.The defendants denied that they stole any corn. They said they were in search of apples and that they intended to buy them and that they had no intention of stealing corn. Rose Minton, the young woman in the party, was on the stand for several hours. She said they lived on the road because they could live cheaper that way than by living in a house and paying rent, but denied that they ever stole anything from the farmers along the road. At 6 o'clock in the evening the case was adjourned and with several other witnesses to examine the count adjourned until this morning when the hearing will be resumed. The other cases will be taken up at the close of the present case.LIVED IN DECATUR Dead Horse and Spring Wagon Found Near Vanderville.The other day about four miles west of Vanderville, farmers discovered husbands congregating in a patch of brush not far from the public road, and thinking that some of their stock might have died there, they went over to where the husbands were holding their convention and found a dead horse, supposed to have been dead four or five days. The horse was hitched to a common spring wagon and in the wagon was a target rifle, a pair of overalls, a blanket and a sack with about a bushel of roasting ears.No one knows who the outfit belongs to, as there was nothing by which the owner could be identified. It is reported that a few days before the finding of the horse an old man, with about such a big head stopped at a house nearby to make some inquiries, and leaving his horse unhitched, the animal took fright and ran away. The old man started after his horse, but it is thought that he could not find him and went on his way without him. In his efforts to get away the horse had caught a wheel of the cart in a tree and was stopped. It started to death with 75 yards of the public highway.The old man while at this house re-to the Pan-American exposition, promised to be no less "A City of Light." If the expectations of the Elks and merchants are but partially realized. Already contracts have been made for over 3,000 incandescent lights to be distributed across the streets of the carnival town and in lettered signs to be suspended in front of the various business houses. All of the merchants along Merchant street have traveling outside of those at the Pan-American exposition and the committee

Christian County Gather in Reunion.

MEETING LASTS TWO DAYS

Some State Officials Will Go On Hand Today—Music, Speaking, Balloon Ascensions and Sham Battles.The annual reunion of the old settlers and soldiers of Christian county was held at Palmer Wednesday and will be continued today. It is one of the most successful gatherings of the kind held in Central Illinois this fall. The people of Christian county certainly understand how to enjoy themselves at an outdoor gathering. There was a large crowd present and throughout the day there was speaking and amusement sufficient to take up every moment of the time.
A dinner was spread that will never be forgotten by those who attended.
The meats were cooked by means of steam from a traction engine, and were served smoking hot. They included beef, mutton, pork, chicken and in addition there were other viands to make up a fine feast.The morning hours were given over to a band concert and then the dinner followed. Mayor Pay R. Best of Palmer delivered the address of welcome and left no doubt in the minds of his hearers as to his cordiality.There was music by the ladies' solo band and glee club and an address to the old soldiers by W. F. Calloun of Decatur.Features of the afternoon were the sham battle participated in by members of Company B of Taylorville, who also gave a fine exhibition drill. Prof.
O'Meara gave a balloon ascension, but the parachute did not materialize.
The balloon ascended only four hundred feet and at that height the hor-nament did not care to ent lose but dropped back to earth with the big gas bag, alighting in a corn field. The moment he had dismounted himself from the ropes the balloon shot up in the air and drifted away for a half mile.Supper was served at 6 o'clock and that was followed by music, and a camp fire at which the old soldiers recounted remembrances of the war. Taps were sounded at 11 o'clock, a large number of persons camping on the ground.

WEDDING AT WARRENSBURG.

Marriage of Miss Della May Culp to Hen- ning Nottelman.

On Wednesday evening, at the beau- tiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Hen- ry C. Culp, four miles northwest of War- rensburg, occurred one of the prettiest weddings of the season, when their only daughter, Della May, was united in marriage to Henning Nottelman, in the presence of about seventy-five guests.

... the wedding of the bride, entered the parlor and opened the gates which had been fastened with a large silver lock. Following these came the bride- groom with his best man, then the bridesmaid, and last the bride with her brother, Ford Culp. Her, W. T. Hunter performed the beautiful ceremony which united the happy couple. During the visit him at Gilman, where the latter has been living for some time, Culp has been hanging a tale of misadventure. The story is told by Patterson to a Clinton man as follows:

Walmesley was welcomed at the Pat- terson home and all was well until the third day of his visit when it was al- leged that he and the wife of his host planned an elopement to Chicago. The lady left her husband, after the supper while Miss Mendenhall's wedding March the bride party again took the train for Chicago. Here she was to meet Walmesley at the Central depot. The husband suspected that some- thing was wrong and wired the Chicago police as well as Ed Moffatt, who is a special officer at the Michigan avenue terminals. The couple met all right, but the presence of the officers of the law spoiled their plans of future happiness. No charge could be made against George, but the lady was sent home to her husband.

Things must have continued to go wrong in the Patterson home, however, as Mr. Patterson is now in this city. Walmesley by all accounts did not mourn, as he is reported to have been seen in Chicago a few days later in the company of a Marion woman—Clinton Times.

ALL WANT MONEY

Many Claimants Filed Suits in the Circuit Court On Thursday

BIG CLAIM AGAINST HERALD

Rose Green Sues For Broken Ankle—J. R. Edmonds Asked to Uncover Property—Two Divorce Cases.

In the circuit court Thursday there were a number of suits filed. Principal among them were several damage suits. The claimants are all modest in their demands. The suit against the Herald company is the most attractive. In the amount demanded, of the entire lot. Of course, in such a big lot of new suits there were two divorce suits, as might have been expected. Among the more important proceedings were the follow- ing:

POSTER'S CLAIM.

In the circuit court Thursday there was instituted a suit in which W. W. Foster is plaintiff and the Herald Dis- patch company is named as defendant. The action is trespass in the case and the amount of the claim is $25,000. The declaration has not yet been filed, but it is understood that the charge will be made to the extent of the demand by reason of an article signed "Republican," which ap- peared in the columns of the Herald dur- ing the mayoralty contest last spring.

BROKEN ANKLE.

Rose Green brings suit against the People's Savings and Loan association for $3,000. There is no bill of particu- lars filed in the suit but it is known that the claim for damages rests on an accident which befell the woman sev- eral weeks ago. She was one of the party which was on a second story porch on a building on East Main street just east of Franklin street, when the porch gave way. The person on the porch fell a distance of ten or more feet and the woman had her ankle badly crushed. W. E. Redman appears for the plaintiff.

SUEN FOR INSURANCE.

J. Bridget and John Burns bring suit against the Lincoln League to recover $1000 on an insurance policy held by their daughter, Mary Burns, and who died several months ago. There is no bill of particulars filed in this suit but from persons interested it is learned that the league refuses to pay the sum named in the benefit certificate because, as its officers allege, Miss Burns was at- tended with tuberculosis at the time that the certificate was issued and that her condition of health was concealed from the league. On the other hand the beneficiaries contend that the insured was not suffering with tuberculosis at the time that the certificate was issued but that she afterwards contracted the disease. J. J. Flinn appears for the plaintiffs.

WANT HIM TO UNCOVER.

E. L. Pegram has brought suit against J. R. and E. R. Edmonds to recover on a judgment of $552 secured in the courts of Christian county sev- eral years ago. The bill relates that when the sheriff made an effort to collect the judgment he could find no property. The statement is further made that J. R. Edmonds, either at that time or af- terwards acquired an interest in various properties, but that the title is always vested in his son, E. R. Edmonds. The bill asks that the defendant be com- pelled to come into court and make a full statement in answer to the charges that he is thus concealing property.

ASSUMPTION SUITS.

Catherine Miller brings suit in as- sumption to recover $2500 from J. W. Eckman.

Thomas Kirby sues in assumption to re- cover $1000 from James Elliott.

DIVORCES.

Fairy Hardy asks for a decree of di- vorce from her husband J. Charles Hardy. The couple were married in December, 1908, and she says that she was re- cently compelled to leave him on ac- count of his drunkenness and his ex- tremely and repeatedly cruel. The bill names various dates on which she was beaten by her husband. In order that she may as far as possible forget all about her unpleasant experiences she asks that the decree she expects will give her permission to resume her maiden name, Fairy Blackman.

Celia Moore wants a divorce from Francis Moore. The couple were mar- ried on June 20, 1907, and she is the mother of two children, aged 3 and 1 years. She asks their custody. She charges that her husband has been guilty of drunkenness and immorality.

ASK FOR FIVE THOUSAND.

James McCarty has filed a suit for damages in the sum of $5000, naming G. W. Mueller as defendant. There is a suit in chancery now pending. McCarty was formerly in the grocery business at Pana. He alleges that he was induced by Mr. Mueller to remove his stock to this city and that he would be given aid in the establishment of a grocery busi- ness in this city. He claims that he fol- lowed out the suggestion but that Mr. Mueller declined to aid him and that he has therefore suffered a financial loss.

Working Night and Day.

This car will leave the curve at the park entrance on the return trip at 10:22 p. m. ## THE MARKETS.

Grain Markets.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Wheat—The mar- ket was again dull, fluctuations com- paratively narrow and trade largely lo- cal. The sentiment was a little divided, but no special change occurred in values, the close accepting a trifle advance. Cables were easier, receipts from the northwest liberal and the weather there more fa- vorable. Liverpool spot was steady to 1-4c lower, futures 1-8c to 3-8c lower. The feature was small arrivals from the southwest. Clearings were 357,000 bush- els and seaboard reported ten boatloads taken for export. Local receipts, 117 cars.

Corn—Trade fair at most and exclu- sively local. The feeling was again a lit- tle mixed but the undertone on the whole was steadier, the close showing Decem- ber 1-8c to 1-4c higher, and May 1-4c lower. The feature was changing, buying December and selling May which caused a narrowing of the spread. At the start there was liquidation of long corn but a better demand developed later, chiefly from December shorts and prices recov- ered. The weather was more favorable, Liverpool spot was steady to 1-2c lower, and futures 3-8c to 5-8c lower. Receipts, 208 cars.

Oats—Steady with a small trade. Prices had 1-4c range and about the same at yesterday. Fair selling pressure early but no interest was shown any time.

of Monticello, Receives Sud-

FATHER MANUEL IS DEAD

Friends in Decatur were shocked to hear of the death of William E. Lodge, one of the oldest citizens and best known attorneys of Mon-tello. His death occurred on Tuesday night at 11 o'clock and was due to heart disease. Mr. Lodge had been sick with his son, Fred and at his home, concerning a law case in which they were interested as counsel. There was nothing in the nature of an exciting nature. After Fred had finished Fred arose and left room to retire. A moment later Lodge arose from his chair and he did so his son, James, noticed his stagger and spring forward to catch him. Within a very few seconds Mr.
Lodge had expired. The physicians, who were called, stated that his death was due to a rupture of the heart. That even had been giving him some trouble for some time. He had been to Chicago to consult a specialist and had been told he was afflicted with neuritis of the heart, but was advised that there was no immediate danger. With this assurance Mr. Lodge gave himself no anguish and was not alarmed at his condition.

Mr. Lodge was 65 years of age and of his life had been one of the most active in that county. He had practiced law there since 1870. During the war time he called a paper at Mon-tello. In 1875 he formed a partnership for the practice of law with Harvey Horton, which continued until the latter was elected county judge and later, in 1888, he formed a partnership with James H. Hays.

Mr. Lodge leaves five sons, William E. Lodge, B. Charles V. Lodge and Fred.
His wife died six years ago and he never recovered from the blow. He leaves three brothers, C. V. Lodge of Chicago, H. E. Lodge of Monticello and J. V. Lodge of Monticello, and one sister, Mrs. W. H. Lodge of Paris.

It is thought his funeral will be held on Friday, but the time will depend somewhat upon the arrival of his sons, one of whom is attending Columbia college.

DEATH OF CHARLES MANUEL

Illipolis Priest, After a Year's Illness, Dies at Colorado Springs.

Rev. Charles Manuel of the Catholic church of Illipolis died at Colorado Springs on Tuesday night, Sept. 21, after an illness of almost a year. Since last November he was confined at St.
Mary's hospital in Decatur. Three weeks ago he went to Colorado Springs in the hope that the change of climate would be beneficial. Monday Rev. Patrick A. Tappan, of St. James church in this city, received a message saying that Rev. Manuel was slowly sinking and that his death was likely to occur at any moment.

When Father Manuel was first taken ill he was apparently troubled with pleurisy and this attack was not considered necessarily dangerous. Later lung trouble developed and in spite of everything that could be done for his relief the disease did not yield to treatment. When the sick man went west he was accompanied by his friend, Frank Elshoff of Springfield, at Colorado Springs the physicians diagnosed the trouble as tuberculosis complicated with Bright's disease. Those who knew Father Manuel could scarcely believe that he was dead. A year ago, when he appeared to be in the flush of health, he would have been the last in one hundred to have been selected as a man likely to be stricken. Six feet tall, finely proportioned, he was an ideal figure.
During the years that he was stationed at Illipolis he was a frequent visitor to Decatur and outside of the church had many friends who will regret to hear of his untimely death.

Rev. Father Manuel was about 48 years old. For twenty-five years he had been stationed at Illipolis. It was the last and only charge he ever had. During the quarter of a century that he had been at that place he had grown to be better than popular. In 1875 the congregation there largely through his efforts erected a handsome church which cost about $25,000.

His only relative of the deceased priest living in this country is a sister, a nun, at New Chin, Minn.

The expectation is that the remains will arrive at Illipolis on Friday morning. The funeral will probably occur a few hours later. Rev. Father Tappan, of St. James church, will be at Illipolis on Wednesday night after the funeral arrangements. All of the priests of the diocese of Alton have been invited to attend the burial ceremonies, and many friends within and without the church will attend to pay a tribute to the memory of a good man.

CARNIVAL WEEK OPPORTUNITIES

For the week of the great Elks' Carnival, October 7 to 12, the Linn & Scruggs store will offer very special prices in all departments. Our counters and shelves are loaded with the latest and best goods that can be found in any market and the prices we are sure can not be duplicated in any store with less purchasing facilities. While we make it a rule to sell none but the best goods, that does not imply that our goods are in any sense high priced; on the contrary the goods that you buy at this store—guaranteed to be just as represented—are the cheapest goods that you can buy, judged from the stand points of wear and quality. There are goods sold that are less in price than some of the goods that we offer—but their values are such as our reputation as a square business house would not permit us to handle. We want you to come and see our store while attending the Carnival; we want you to make free use of our rest parlors; to leave your goods and packages at our check room; to let us do everything that we possibly can to make your visit a pleasant and profitable one. When you get on the street car ask the conductor to let you off at Main and Water streets—that is our corner. Then come right to the store and we will take care of you in the best possible manner.

CRAZED BY LOVE

Prof. J. S. Crowell Murders
Miss Powell at Rolla, Missouri.

FLED FROM HIS PURSUERS

And When Located in a Barn Shot Himself to Avoid Being Taken.

Kansas City, Sept. 24.—A special to the Times from Rolla, Mo., says: J. S. Crowell, instructor in the School of Mines and Metallurgy, who last night shot and killed Miss Mollie Powell because she refused to marry him, was surrounded by a posse near here at 11:15 tonight. Before he could be taken Crowell shot himself, lying almost instantly. Crowell was found in a barn near the scene of the murder, where he had been in hiding since Monday night.

The crime.

Rolla, Mo., Sept. 24.—Last night at 11 o'clock Crowell shot Miss Mollie Powell of this city through the heart and killed her almost instantly.

J. S. Crowell came from near Boston, Mass., a graduate from the Boston Institute of Technology, and entered into the employment of the School of Mines and Metallurgy as instructor in shop work and drawing. All of last year he paid devoted attention to Miss Powell.
He was a constant caller at the home of the young lady and was treated almost like a member of the family. He would take meals and go driving with the family and was constantly around when not at work at the school.

Crowell was desperately in love with Miss Powell and sought her consent to marry him. Miss Powell always turned a deaf ear to him and told him that she did not love him and could not marry him; that she was engaged to another man. He was persistent in his attentions and finally Miss Powell's mother, Mrs. W. J.
Powell, informed Crowell that her daughter was already engaged and could not think of marrying him.

After the school closed in June, Crowell remained in Rolla a month before leaving for his summer vacation. While away he was offered a position in a college in the east, of which he advised Miss Powell, and she at once wrote to him by all means to accept it and not return to Rolla. He did so, but the next day resigned and advised Miss Powell that he would return to Rolla.

The School of Mines opened on schedule time and Crowell was on hand a few days before. He kept up the same attentions and loved that he would win Miss Powell's hand.

Monday was Miss Powell's 10th birthday and her mother gave her a birthday dinner and invited a few of her gentleman friends, among them Crowell. After dinner they all went driving in the Powell trap and returned about 8 o'clock.
The other two gentlemen bid adieu and Crowell remained.

Mrs. Powell retired at 11 o'clock, expecting her daughter to follow at once.
She had scarcely reached her bed room when she heard a scream and a revolver shot. Crowell fled from the house and posse were at once organized to find him, but did not succeed in doing so until tonight.

COUNTY AND BASEBALL FUNDS

Said to Have Been Used to settle William Allen's Debt.

Indianapolis, Sept. 24.—The Sentin-el's Fort Wayne special says: "A few weeks ago the great furnishing firm of William Meyer and Brother was forced into bankruptcy. William Meyer, then president of the Western baseball association. In order to protect himself it is believed that he may have used baseball and county funds. The alleged shortage of the county exceeds $40,000 and the association will lose at least $4,000. It is said his debts may exceed $40,000."

Deaths of the Day

day from the effects of an apopleptic stroke.

Canton, Sept. 24.—There is little change in the condition of Mrs. Mc-Kinley this morning. She is about the same as for several days.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Illinois—Fair brisk near the lake. Thursday, fair, probably cooler.

LOCAL WEATHER.

The following is a record of the temperature for the twenty-four hours ending Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock as reported by Prof. J. H. Conrad, government observer:

United States aims at the establishment of a sort of home of all the American states. It is assumed that the United States will avoid displacing Chili, Mexico and Brazil, and it is supposed to make concessions will make them to those three states. It is said to be probable, however, in view of the conflicting interests represented in the congress that it will not come to any general agreement and that it will end in division more profound than those existing.

OCTOBER 7TH

Has Now Been Selected For Illinois Day.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Illinois day at the Pan-American exposition will be observed Monday, Oct. 7th. The new date was selected today at a meeting of the state commissioners who decided to carry out the plans which were temporarily abandoned on account of the assassination of President McKinley. Governor Yates and staff and practically all the state officers, the first regiment I. N. G., and as many delegations and marching bodies as can be enlisted will attend.

Police Chief Is Determined

New York, Sept. 24.—Percy Esters, the editor of the Paterson (N. J.) examiner, "La Question Sociale," has met his first serious obstacle in getting out his paper and it looks as though its publication might be stopped altogether. For nearly a year the paper has been printed in Passaic by Frederick Glough, a job printer. Chief of Police Hendrix of Passaic heard of the paper being printed there and sent word to Glough that the paper could no longer be printed in Passaic.

Glough said that he had signed a contract to print the paper and that he could not back out of it. Chief Hendrix replied that, contract or no contract, the paper could not be printed in Passaic.

After consulting his lawyer Glough printed the papers and delivered them in Paterson. Chief Hendrix declares that this will not be allowed again. He says that he will have a policeman wait the printing office and that he will take the responsibility of breaking a contract for such work.

Result of Bureau Wedding

Bunker Hill, Ill., Sept. 24.—Mrs. Olive Ashton has ceased to look for her husband of a few weeks. Harry Ashton, and his wife went to her home in Omaha.
They had met by means of a marriage bureau and were married in St. Louis.
Mrs. Ashton had $1700 which she received as life insurance from her former husband's death.

Her second husband secured this from her, saying that he would establish himself in the jewelry business. A number of trips were made to large cities in order to lay in a supply of goods, but from the last trip he never returned.
Two weeks passed by and his new wife began to be uneasy about her husband.
She now has a warrant for his arrest for wife desertion and says she never expects to get the money. She has gone to Omaha, her former home.

LIPTON IS JOYFUL

Over the Result of the Official Measurements of the Big Yachts.

CONCEDES ONLY 43 SECONDS

Boats Already For the First Big Race to Be Sailed Tomorrow.

New York, Sept. 24.—The official measurements of the Shamrock and Columbia were made public tonight. The result was in the nature of a surprise, for it showed the Shamrock, which is the larger boat as far as sail area and displacement is concerned, allows only 43 seconds to the Columbia over a thirty mile course, on which the contests are to be sailed.
The Shamrock has a shorter water line length, longer spinnaker boom, longer gaff, longer top mast and carries more canvas. The designer of the Shamrock, by keeping down the lead water line length of the yacht, got the better of his rival, Harroeschoff. The sail area of the Shamrock is larger and by judicious handling of the spars Watson is only penalized 43 seconds. The measurements follow:

Columbia—Length on load water line, 88.75 feet; from after end of main boom to end of bowsprit where the jib topsail halyard block is fastened, 182.87 feet; foremast mast to end of bowsprit as above, 73.80 feet; length of spinnaker boom, 73.80 feet; main gaff, 14.54 feet; topmast, 61.61 feet; minus 1.57, 51.71 feet; upper side of main boom to topsail halyard block, 134.74; square root of sail area, 114.04 square feet; sailing length, as per rule, 102.355 feet.

Shamrock—Length on load water line, 89.25 feet; from after end of main boom to end of bowsprit where jib topsail hal-yard block is fastened, 184.03 feet; foremast mast to end of bowsprit as above, 74.28 feet; length spinnaker, 74.28 feet; main gaff, 14.57 feet; topmast, 62.12 feet; minus 1.57, 51.54 feet; upper side of main boom to topsail halyard block, 143.30 feet; square root of sail area, 118.38 square feet; sailing length, as per rule, 102.70 feet.

Both boats were measured with fifty-two men on board. The difference in the sailing length of the two boats is 1.435 feet. This computed on the time allowance of the New York Yacht club gives the Columbia an allowance of 43 seconds in a thirty mile race. When the results of the measurement of the Shamrock and Columbia were told to Sir Thomas Lipton he could scarcely conceal his joy.

SIR THOMAS JOYFUL.

"We thought," he said, "the Shamrock would have to concede far more time.
All hands now believe our chances are getting better for lifting the cup. All the crew of the Shamrock believe victory is certain. I hope we shall win, but I am not so foolishly as to ignore the magnificent capabilities of our dear neighbor."

At 1.55 the Columbia was warped into the same drydock as harbored her rival.
Comparison between the two yachts led to much argument. The experts measured the defender and she was taken to Sandy Hook, Shamrock was also measured, but the work was finished too late for her to get away before morning.

GATES HAS A SCHEME

That Causes Consternation in the Railroad World.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—The Chronicle tomorrow will say "John W. Gates has signaled his return from Europe by launching a new railroad system. It is an announcement that brought surprise and consternation to the big trunk lines that run from Chicago to Kansas City.
It will make a continuous line from west of Quincy, on the Mississippi, to Kansas City and Council Bluffs. The roads in the project are the Quincy and Kansas City railroads, Omaha, Kansas City and Eastern, Kansas City and Northern and Omaha and St. Louis. It is strategically as well located to the middle western section as the Chicago and Great Western in the upper territory and capable of as much rate distance as the Atchafalaya property."

CLORIA WINS.

Takes 2193 Feet at Cincinnati After a Hard Battle.

NOTED LAWYER IN THE STAR ROUTE

and Madeline Pollard Cases.

Washington, Sept. 24.—The Schley court of inquiry was brought to a sudden termination for the day 18 minutes after concluding this morning by the announcement of the sudden death of Judge John-nah Wilson, senior counsel for Admiral Schley.

The announcement was made to the court by Hon. Isador Rayner, assistant counsel, in the following language:

"I have a very sad announcement to make to the court. I have just heard of the death of Judge Wilson. I left him at 10 o'clock this morning, slightly indisposed. I was with him until last last night. I saw him this morning at 8 o'clock and left him at 10. We have continued the rumor through the telephone that he has just died at the Shoreham hotel, and I would respectfully ask the court, if it meets with the approval of the court, to adjourn for today."

Admiral Dewey said:

"I have to announce that owing to the death of Judge Wilson, of counsel, the court will adjourn for today until tomorrow morning."

Mr. Rayner said that so far as he could now see, the counsel for Admiral Schley would be able to proceed tomorrow, but he added that there would be a delay in attending the funeral when it occurred. Admiral Dewey and Capt.
Lundy agreed that this detail could be adjourned later.

The announcement of Judge Wilson's death created consternation, not only among the members
